

TANAT : an institution open to all where each one feels respected in a family atmosphere favorable to work and success

Our values (pupils' field)

Kindness	To be benevolent with one's classmates : receiving and avoiding jokes. To protect the weakest.
Honesty	To take responsibility for one's words and actions. To learn how to recognize one's qualities and faults.
Solidarity	To help the needy within the limit of one's means (material, intellectual...) To encourage mutual assistance To care about mutual assistance To help those who are facing difficulties within one's capabilities.
Rigour	To agree and to respect the rules of the communal life and of the school To carry out the school activities with the greatest possible care (homework...)
Tolerance	To set up an atmosphere of respect : child/child ; pupil/adult, child/adult Civility : respecting the differences of origin and of religion.
Freedom	Knowing to listen to the other and to speak out freely.
The work	To inspire with liking the well-done work and the desire of learning. (so be careful with the handwriting and the presentation of homework and notebooks) Avoir le souci des résultats probants Caring about getting conclusive results.

TANAT : an institution open to all where each one feels respected in a family atmosphere favorable to work and success

Our values (teachers' field)

Kindness	To help the child to educate and to build himself through guiding him continuously To take into account the child's development stages To put the child in confidence and dialoguing with him
Honesty	To cultivate a frankness spirit within everyone To take responsibility for one's words and actions To learn how to recognize one's qualities and faults
Solidarity	To help the needy within the limit of one's means (material, intellectual...) To encourage mutual assistance To care about mutual assistance To help those who are facing difficulties within one's capabilities.
Rigour	To accept and to respect the rules of the communal life and of the schools. To carry out the school activities with the greatest possible care (preparation of lessons sessions, joint homework...)
Tolerance	To set up an atmosphere of respect : child/child ; pupil/adult, child/adult Civility: respecting the differences of origin and of religion.
Freedom	Knowing to listen to the other and to speak out freely
The work	To inspire with liking the well-done work and the desire of learning To participate actively and positively to the team's work. Caring about getting conclusive results.